NOT PERMITTED TO CARRY GUNS ON RAILWAY TRAINS.

Step by Commander McLean that Probably Will Raise a Storm of Disapproval.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.-The Navy Decablegram from Comamnder McLean, of the cruiser Cincinnati, dated Colon, Sept.

"The United States guards and guarantees traffic and the line of transit. To-day l permitted the exchange of Colombian troops from Panama to Colon, about 1,000 men each way, the troops without arms, in train guarded by American naval force in and ammunition in seperate train guarded also by naval force in the same manner as other freight.'

Officials of the Colombian legation here predict that a storm of disapproval will arise in Colombia as a result of Commander McLean's action in disarming the Colombian troops before their passage across the isthmus. It is stated here that Colombia's agreement with the Panama Railroad Company specifically provides for the transportation of Colombian soldiers by the railroad when occasion arises, and the commander's action is regarded at the legation here as a direct infringement of Colombia's sovereignty over the isthmus.

Commander McLean, in having the troops transported in a seperate train from their arms is acting apparently in accordance with his construction of that part of Secretary Moody's instructions, cabled Satur-"Any transportation of government troops not in violation of treaty, and which not endanger transit or provoke hostilities may not be objectionable. The department must rely upon your judgment to decide such questions as conditions may arise from day to day." Naval officers say the commander evidently believed the transportation of the troops, rifles in hand and cartridge belts full, might "provoke hostilities," while en route across the isthmus and create an in-

A belief, which has grown so strong that it no longer can be disregarded, is held in Central and South American diplomatic quarters here in regard to this latest, and in point of numbers, almost unprecedented dispatch of naval force to the isthmus. This belief (and it should be stated that the impression prevails in spite of emphatic expressions of high officials of the United States government to the contrary) is that the large naval force which has been sent to keep traffic open across the isthmus will prevent, by its very presence, the continuation of hostilities along the railroad on any extensive scale, and soon bring them to a halt altogether; that the force has been sent there in anticipation of an early signature of the Panama canal treaty and that it will be kept there to maintain order and quiet along the strip from Panama to Colon, which, by the terms of the prospective treaty, the United States is to control. The following important dispatch was received at the Colombian legation here tonight from Governor Salazar, of the Department of Panama: "Rebels have retreated to Agua Dulce. She Says, However, There Was No Scene Between Her Royal Father and Herself at Spa.

GREETED WITH CHEERS WHEN SHE LEFT BRUSSELS FOR CALAIS.

Simple Statement of Why She Left the Queen's Death Chamber-Funeral Services.

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Sept. 22 .- The scandal arising from the revival of the family quarrel between King Leopold and his daughter, the Princess Stephanie (Countess of Lonyay), beside the bier of the late Queen Marie Henriette at Spa, yesterday, is agitating all classes. Popular sympathy on all sides is expressed for the princess, who, although deeply affected by the incident, makes no complaint. The princess herself has given out a simple statement of the facts, as follows: "The precise facts are these: I was praying at the bier of the Queen when some one came about 4 o'clock to tell me the King would not receive me. I immediately left the death-chamber. I had no interview with his Majesty. I was at Cromer, England, when I learned of the death of the Queen. Like a loving daughter and a patriot, I hurried to Spa to render the last honors to my mother. As the King has caused an intimation to be conveyed to me that he does not desire my presence, I am going Thence I shall probably return to England. There was no scene between the King and myself at Spa." It was hoped by the public, who applauded Princess Stephanie's match with the Count Lonyay, that the death of the Queen would lead to healing the rupture, but the the same manner as other passengers, arms | incident at Spa is taken to demonstrate that the King is as irreconcilable as ever to what he openly designated as a mesalliance, even after the approval of the Austrian emperor, Francis Joseph. The princess will not be present at her mother's funeral. During the whole railroad journey from Spa to this city the princess was prostrated. This morning she attended a On leaving the church she was sympathetically greeted by the assembled crowd. Princess Stephanie started for Calais this afternoon. She was accorded a most enthusiastic greeting by large crowds of people at the railway station, while cries of 'Vive la Comtesse' were raised, to which she replied, "I thank you with all my heart." Then, apparently quite overcome by the popular demonstration, the princess burst into tears.

Funeral Services at Spa.

SPA, Belgium, Sept. 22.-The funeral services preparatory to the removal of the remains of Queen Marie Henriette to Brussels were held this morning in a church here. The coffin later was placed in a car and was completely hidden by flowers.

King Leopold, leaning on the arm of Prince Albert, of Flanders, the heir presumptive to the throne, followed on foot, the ministers, generals, and other distinguished persons bringing up in the rear. The route of the funeral procession was lined with troops and crowded with people. After the requiem mass the cortege proceeded to the railroad station. ## GILLIAM'S SCHEME.

He Said He Could Get Money from the Street-Car Company.

Edward Gilliam, living in the Columbia block, is lying at his home suffering from bruises on his back and head that are said to be self-imposed. Gilliam was in Roller's restaurant last night at midnight in company with Edward Hunt and a man named O'Brien. Gilliam was penniless and was in a despondent mood. Turning to his companions he said he would try a trick to get some money. "When a car comes by I am going to run out with my coat in my hand," he said. "I will throw it under the car wheels and then fall at the side of the dresses and jewelry to the value of about car and the company will think that I have been injured. Then I can get some money from the company." Gilliam asked his companions to take part in the conspiracy, but they declined. At midnight when car No. was going to the barn Gilliam ran from car and then fell on the pavement. When he fell we was under the influence of liquor, A further search of the woman's effects | The city ambulance was summoned and Gilliam was taken to his home. But the most extraordinary thing happened in Evansville, Ind. A girl with a dark complexion entered at one of the public schools, and at once all the other children left and the teacher was confronted with empty benches. Truant officers were sent after the children, but their parents said they should not attend school with the darkfaced girl, whom they suspected of being a PITTSBURG, Sept. 22.-George Frederick | negro. The Board of Education took the matter up, and after an investigation discovered that the girl has no negro blood. She is simply a brunette, and her parents are French. It will be well hereafter for brunette girls, when they enter the public schools in the North, to use some kind of complexion powders. It is really painful to note the existence of such prejudices in the minds of our Northern brethren.
